Hobbyist Insurance Declaration

Business/Commercial Stallholders are defined as those who are a commercial enterprise and have an ABN. These stallholders must have their own insurance policy with a minimum $20 million Public Liability cover, and provide a copy of their certificate of currency to the Show with their site application. They cannot access the Show's public liability insurance in any manner.

Hobbyist Stallholders are defined as those who are not running a formal commercial enterprise, do not have an ABN, and earn under $20,000 per year from their stall activity. Hobbyist Stallholders who meet this definition and have signed the below declaration are automatically covered under the Show's insurance cover for Public Liability. The Show's Public Liability insurance does not extend to Hobbyists in any manner for any Products Liability exposure.

Declaration

I declare that I am a Hobbyist Stall Holder, do not have an ABN and do not earn more than $20,000 in this enterprise on an annual basis. I am therefore protected under the Show's Liability policy for Public Liability only. I am aware that this protection does not extend to Products Liability.
